The firm

Paetzold Avocats is an independent law firm specialised in the fields of business law, labour law and tax law, and dedicated to international companies and groups, and their subsidiaries with activities in France. We operate throughout France and abroad.

We have been assisting our clients for over 30 years in the implementation of their legal and judicial strategies in all areas of business law, labour law and tax law.

The experience acquired over the years enables us to find quick and appropriate answers to any question.

We offer complete and high-performance services such as audits, analysis, advice, negotiations, drafting of contracts, pleadings and other documents, assistance with judgement executions, court-ordered appraisals, disputes, judicial and arbitration proceedings.

Thanks to our high level of expertise, our comprehensive understanding of the business world and our close relationship with our clients, our Paris based firm has become a reference for international companies in France.

Our lawyers, associates and staff members are known for their expertise, rigour, competence and efficiency.

Our multidisciplinary team of about twenty trilingual members (French, English and German) is characterised by its flexibility, dynamism and availability.

The size of our firm guarantees a responsive service adapted to all your needs.
